

Book cradle image and measurement instruction

Take an image of the book resting on a book cushion facing the lower edge, opened up at the display page as per illustration below.

Span a paper strip from over the spine from hinge > to hinge> following the red dotted line.

Mark the hinges with a pencil and measure the distance between the marks.

You can also measure when closed if more convenient...

